VIRTUES IN PRACTICE

This year our school has adopted the Virtues in Practice (V.I.P.) program for children to grow closer to Jesus by imitating His life and virtues. It is set up in such a way that the whole school studies the same virtue each month. The program covers 27 virtues over a three-year cycle, with 81 saints held up as models of the virtues. Too often schools focus mainly on grades. It is our belief that we need to create youth who excel academically, but also form good habits and make choices out of compassion and empathy for others.

We would like to recognize the following students for earning a V.I.P. award for their noble actions:

Ava Hillbrand - Generosity

Bridget Carrington - Fortitude

Anna Carrington - Fortitude

Jo John Ritter - Servitude

Katelyn Brennan - Generosity

Xiadani Bello - Generosity

Gabriel Ortega - Generosity

Kassandra Corral - Generosity

Matthew McDermott - Generosity

THE GOOD NEWS Kindergarten:

As a culmination of the Living Things plant unit, Kindergarten students learned about peat pots, planting seeds, and what they need to do to successfully grow plants from seeds. They are currently in the process of sprouting. God's creations are truly miraculous as is the growth of 5 year olds.
